ARTICLE VII. COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT.

Section A. Relief.

Each Member shall be governed by, and shall comply with, all of the terms of the Declaration, the Articles, these Bylaws and any Rules and Regulations set forth by the Board. Default by a Member shall entitle the Association, acting through the Board or through the Managing Agent, to the relief as set forth in the following paragraphs:

(a) Additional Liability. Each Member shall be liable for the expense of all maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his conscious act, neglect or carelessness or that of any member of his family or his employees, tenants, agents or licensees, but only to the extent that such expense is not covered by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Board. Such liability shall include any increase in casualty insurance rates occasioned by use, or misuse, of the Property or Common Properties. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be construed as modifying any waiver by any insurance company of its rights of subrogation.

(b) Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceedings arising out of any alleged default by a Member, the Association shall be entitled to recover the costs of such proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be determined by the court.

(c) No waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association, the Board or of a Member to enforce any right, provisions, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Declaration or Bylaws shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association, the Board or the Member to enforce such right, provisions, covenant or condition in the future. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association, the Board or any Member pursuant to any term, provision, covenant or condition of the Declaration or Bylaws shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more thereof shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party exercising the same from exercising such other privileges as may be granted to such party by the aforesaid documents or at law or in equity.

(d) Abating and Enjoining Violations by Members. The violations of any of the Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board, the breach of any Bylaws contained herein or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, Bylaws, the Articles shall give the Board or its Managing Agent the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Bylaws to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity the continuance of any such breach.

(e) Legal Proceedings. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the Declaration, the Articles, these Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations shall be grounds for relief, including without limitation, an action to recover any sums due for money damages, injunctive relief, foreclosure of the lien for nonpayment of all assessments, any other relief provided for in these Bylaws or any combination thereof including reasonable attorneys fees, and any other relief afforded by a court of competent jurisdiction, all of which relief may be sought by the Association, the Board, the Managing Agent and, if appropriate, any aggrieved Member and shall not constitute an election of remedies.

Section B. Lien for Assessments.

(a) The total annual assessment of each Member for Common Expenses or any special assessment made pursuant to these Bylaws is hereby declared to be a lien filed against the Lot of such Member, which lien shall, with respect to annual assessments, be effective on the first day of each fiscal year of the Association, and, as to special assessments, on the first day of the next month which begins more than ten days after delivery to the Member of notice of such special assessment. The Board or the Managing Agent may file or record such other or further notice of any such lien, or such other or further document, as may be desirable.

(b) In any case where an assessment against a Member is payable in installments, upon a default by such Member in the timely payment of any two consecutive installments, the maturity of the remaining total of the unpaid installments of such assessments may be accelerated, at the option of the Board and the entire balance of the annual assessment may be declared due and payable in full by the service of notice to such effect upon the defaulting Member and his Mortgagee of this Lot by the Board or the Managing Agent.

(c) The lien for assessments may be enforced and foreclosed in the manner provided by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia by action in the name of the Board or the Managing Agent, acting on behalf of the Association. During the pendency of such suit, the Member shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Lot for any period prior to sale pursuant to any judgment or order of any court having jurisdiction over such sale. The plaintiff in such proceeding shall have the right to the appointment of a receiver, if available under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

(d) A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid contributions may be maintained without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same, and a foreclosure may be maintained notwithstanding the pendency of any suit to recover a money judgment.

Section C. Supplemental Enforcement of the Lien.

In addition to the proceedings at law or in equity for the enforcement of the lien established by the Declaration or Bylaws, all of the Members may be required by the Board to execute bonds condition upon the faithful performance and payment of the installments of the lien established thereby and may likewise be required to secure the payment of such obligations by a declaration of trust recorded among the land records of the Property's jurisdiction granting unto a trustee or trustees appropriate powers to the end that, upon default in the performance of such bond the aforesaid declaration of trust may be foreclosed by the trustee or trustees acting at the direction of the Board. In the event any such bonds have been executed and the declaration of trust is recorded, then any subsequent purchaser of a Lot shall take title subject to the declaration of trust and shall assume the obligations provided for therein.

Section D. Subordination and Mortgage Protection.

Notwithstanding any other provisions hereof to the contrary, the lien of any assessment levied pursuant to these By-laws upon any Lot (and any penalties, interest on assessments, late charges, attorneys fees, or the like) shall be subordinate to, and shall in no way affect the rights of a first Mortgagee so long as such Mortgage was made in good faith for value received; provided, however, that such subordination shall apply only to assessments which have become due and payable prior to a sale or transfer of such Lot pursuant to a decree of foreclosure, or any proceeding in lieu of foreclosure. Such sale or transfer shall not relieve the purchaser of the Lot at such sale from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due, nor from the lien of any such subsequent assessments, which lien shall have the same effect and be enforced in the same manner as provided herein.

ARTICLE VIII. AMENDMENT TO DECLARATION AND BYLAWS

Section A. Method of Amending.

These Bylaws may be amended by a vote of the members at a duly called meeting of the Association at which a quorum is present and for which notice was given in accordance with the provisions of the Virginia Nonstock Corporation Law in effect at the time such notice was given. Such notice shall state the proposed amendments to the Declaration or these Bylaws to be presented to the members for approval and shall contain the text of the amendments to be presented or a summary thereof. Any such amendment shall be deemed approved if two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast in person or by proxy at such meeting are in favor of the proposed amendment. If any amendment to these Bylaws is approved by the Members as set forth in this section, the President and Secretary of the Association shall execute an Addendum to this Declaration which shall set forth: (1) the date of the meeting of the Association at which the amendment as adopted; (2) the date that notice of such meeting was given; (3) the total number of votes of members of the Association authorized to vote at such meeting; (4) the total number of votes required to constitute a quorum at such meeting; (5) the total number of votes present at such meeting and counted in establishing the presence of a quorum; (6) the total number of votes necessary to adopt the amendment; (7) the total number of votes cast in favor of and against the amendment; (8) the text of the amendment; and (9) the effective date of the amendment.

Section B. Termination.

(a) Termination of the Association may be effected only by an affirmative vote of eighty percent (80%) of the Members and only after a termination agreement has been executed by such Members and recorded in the Clerk's Office, Circuit Court, Louisa County, Virginia. In addition to the foregoing, termination shall not be allowed unless seventy-five (75%) of the holders of all Mortgages that are liens on the Lots consent in the aforesaid termination agreement.

(b) In the event of termination, the Members shall own the Common Properties as tenants in common in undivided shares with any holders of Mortgages on Lots having a lien on such undivided shares. Such undivided share of each Member shall be in the entire Common Properties on an equal fractional basis with all other Members. So long as the tenancy in common lasts, each Member or his heirs, successors or assigns shall have an exclusive right of occupancy of the Common Properties. All funds held by the Association including insurance proceeds, if any, shall be held for the Members in the same proportion as their former fractional interests. Any costs incurred by the Association in connection with the termination shall be considered an Association expense.

(c) Following termination, the property that was formerly the Common Properties may be partitioned and sold upon the application of any Member. Following a termination if the Board determines by not less than a majority vote to accept an offer for the sale of the Common Properties, each Member shall be bound to execute such deeds and other documents reasonably required to effect such sale at such times and in such form as the Board directs. In such event, any action for partition or other division of the Common Properties shall be held in abeyance pending such sale, and upon the consummation thereof shall be discontinued by all parties thereto.

(d) The members of the Board acting collectively as agent for all Members, shall continue to have such powers as are granted in this Article VIII notwithstanding the fact that the Association itself may be dissolved upon termination.
